You recognize that the value and usefulness of the advisory services provided by Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. will be dependent upon information you provide and upon your active participation in the formulation of planning objectives. You agree to:

- Provide detailed information and copies of documents (such as existing account statements, tax returns, estate planning documents) to permit complete evaluation of your financial situation

If our Client is not a natural person, you, as an authorized individual, represent and confirm that the engagement of the Adviser pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, is authorized by the governing documents relating to the Client and that the terms of this Agreement do not violate any obligations by which the Client is bound. You agree to deliver all forms, corporate resolutions or similar documentation evidencing the undersigned's authority to execute and deliver this Agreement. You also agree to deliver such organizational documents and other documents as we may reasonably require. You further agree to promptly deliver all amendments or supplements to the foregoing documents, and agree that Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. is not liable for any losses, costs or claims suffered or arising out of your failure to provide us with any documents required to be furnished hereunder. The Client warrants and represents that it owns all property deposited in the Account(s) and that no restriction on disposition exists to any such property.

OTHER AGREEMENTS:

You acknowledge that nothing contained in this Agreement violates the terms and conditions of any other agreements to which you may be bound.

NON-EXCLUSIVE ADVISORY SERVICES:

It is understood that Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. performs financial consulting services for various clients. You agree that we may give advice and take action with respect to any of our other clients that may differ from advice given to you. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or restrict Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. from rendering financial consulting services to any other person or firm, or to engage in any other business activities so long as this Agreement or any extension, renewal or amendment hereof shall remain in effect, or until we may otherwise consent. Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. will not have any obligation to recommend for purchase or sale, for the Portfolio, any security or other asset we may purchase, hold or sell for our own accounts or for the accounts of any other clients.

TERM:

This Financial Consulting Agreement is valid until terminated by Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. or the client. Either party may terminate this Agreement anytime upon receipt of written notice. Termination will be effective as of the date written notice is received. Client may terminate this Agreement within five (5) business days after entering the agreement and incur no management fees. Your death, disability or incompetency will not automatically terminate or change the terms of this Agreement. However, your personal representative, guardian, attorney-in-fact, or other authorized representative may cancel this agreement by giving written notice to us. This allows our continued involvement on behalf of your heirs unless this Agreement is cancelled as stated above.

COMPENSATION:

Fees for Financial Consulting Services are calculated as follows:

Assets Under Management	Annual Fee %
Portion under $500,000	1.50 %
Portion between $500,000 - $1,000,000	0.75 %
Portion between $1,000,000 - $3,000,000	0.50 %
Portion above $3,000,000	0.25 %

Financial Consulting fees are payable at the end of each calendar quarter based on the portfolio value as of the last business day of the quarter. The minimum quarterly fee is $1,250. Fees for partial quarters are calculated on a pro rata basis.

Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. does not accept performance fees. The fees set forth are for financial analysis and Financial Consulting Services only and do not include any other professional services that may be required to implement the recommendations made by Pathways Advisory Group, Inc.

Client authorizes payment of fees by the custodian holding Client's funds and securities. Several criteria must be met when payment is made by the custodian: (1) The Client provides written authorization permitting the fees to be paid directly from the Client's account held by the independent custodian, and the authorization is limited to withdrawing contractually agreed upon investment advisor fees. (2) The Advisor must notify the Client, in writing, by at least first class mail, of the exact amount of the proposed withdrawal and the specific manner or basis on which the fee has been calculated, and such notice shall advise the Client of the opportunity to object to the invoiced amount and the manner in which the objection shall be made. (3) The frequency of fee withdrawal shall be specified in the written authorization/agreement. (4) The custodian of the account shall be advised in writing of the limitation on the Advisor's access to the account. (5) The custodian agrees to send to the Client a statement, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts disbursed from the account including the amount of advisory fees paid directly to the Advisor. (6) The Client shall be able to terminate the written billing authorization or agreement at any time. Payment of fees may be made directly by Client upon request. Client authorizes the sale of securities if there is insufficient cash for the debiting of management fees. Client acknowledges that taxable gains could result from such sales.

TRADING AUTHORIZATION:

A Limited Power of Attorney (LPOA) is generally executed with the custodian of Client assets. The LPOA does not provide Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. with custody of Client securities. Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. does not and will not have custody of Client funds or securities. The LPOA provides Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. with the power to execute trades on the Client's behalf, and authorizes the custodian to deduct management fees from Client's account upon direction from Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. Generally, Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. is recommended as broker to execute securities transactions. Client, however, retains authority to direct trades to other brokers. Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. will not exercise discretionary control over any of Client's assets. Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. shall be responsible only to make investment recommendations to Client and to execute investment transactions after obtaining Client's approval. Client will retain absolute discretion over all investment decisions.

Once an asset allocation is agreed upon for the portfolio, a Model Portfolio is developed which identifies specific target percentages for each asset. If the actual percentages diverge from the target percentages, Client authorizes Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. to buy and/or sell securities to rebalance the portfolio closer to the targets. If Client requests a cash withdrawal or if a Required Minimum Distribution must be made from a retirement account, Client authorizes Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. to sell assets, if necessary, to meet the cash needs. Certain asset sales could create taxable gains.

If a purchase or sale in an account creates a divergence from the targeted Model Portfolio percentages, Client authorizes rebalancing trades in that or another account. At times, it may be advantageous to rebalance in a retirement account, such as an IRA, to avoid an adverse tax consequence. Client authorizes Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. to invest cash deposits and cash dividends made to Client accounts in order to move the portfolio closer to the target percentages.

Account custodians will debit Client accounts for various trading expenses, including brokerage commissions, margin interest, custodial fees, and bank or brokerage service fees, as applicable. No portion of such fees is received by Pathways Advisory Group, Inc. or by its principals or its Advisory Representatives.
